@Nightwolf I listen to a lot! Milo from the SAMB introduced me to Stray Kids, who have some really great music. They remind me of BTS a bunch. I also like a lot of girl groups like Apink (%% is a BOP) and the solo artist IU. Haven't heard of Boystory, I'll check them out :)

@Imagine The writing prompts are so spontaneous. Sometimes I look at random stuff on my desk for a flash of inspiration. You have no idea how many prompts were created because of random stuff on my desk. Sometimes I think of stories or tropes or other writing prompts I like and twist them around to make them more fun for you. It is a pretty unusual job, especially in publishing - but the role of "Community Manager" is a thing that exists in a lot of the game and technology industry! dons career counselor hat It's a great non-technical way to get involved in games.

@Grendel you can ask anytime - when I tell you is the question ;) But I think you'll be happy soon. And by soon I mean soon. If you know what I mean.

@Wild Ack, I've been afflicted by the dreaded curse of "posts that have already been posted are re-sent through the filter." Kind of a wordy curse, let's call it The Curse of PTHABPARTTF for short. That happening is why the Town Square thread was deleted twice in the past. While that won't happen a third time, I guess having my posts re-post sometimes is still a thing.

@Cobra It stands for Gods, Goddesses, and Deities and it's a FWRP. FWRP stands for "forum-wide roleplay," which are roleplays that aren't contained to one thread but instead have an overarching world which can have many plots and roleplays. All the [GGaD] posts you see are roleplays that take place in the GGaD universe! The sign-up thread is here: /327460

@Necro Ha, that was super late but your wish was granted.

@Atlas Afraid that's not something I can help you with. I assume it's something to do with you using school internet where someone had been IP banned, I remember you had issues with that previously. As I learned when I dove into SeaQuakes issue, a lot of account/email troubleshooting is out of my hands.

My favorite donut is a bagel

Just kidding (or am I?)! It's a french cruller. So light and fluffy.

@Prism I never played Halo D: It's not Master Chief or Cortana is it?

@Autumn The filter again had it's issue yesterday. Sigh.

@Shukaku As long as it's the 4Kids version! But seriously - the english dub is perfectly appropriate and it's rated PG. I imagine an RP about ninjas using the Naruto world would be fine.

@Ivy I'm aware of this. You'll hear from me about it - don't worry. Thanks to those who reported posts to let me know what was happening as well.

Seeker/Watermelon (I believe Watermelon is your alt?) As Watermelon you said some rude things towards others, remember that one of our core community rules here is showing respect for others. As Seeker, you posted over the weekend a post that, while educational, had some very stong opinions that caused intense debate. If someone asks for an explanation of a term, by all means explain it, but I don't recommend posting general threads on topics that could easily transform into debate or flame war.

@Lupa while I didn't find that exact post yet, I did find this which I believe is your remake? At least you can hold onto the intro this way.

Over a year ago, I made this roleplay called Dragon Mark (/233823) for less active forumers because I wasn't very active at the time. Now, I barely come here, but I feel like the RP would've been a nice addition to the forums (sorry, I'm not trying to brag). I wanted to make a remake, but since I'm so inactive, I knew it would die very soon, and I was wondering if anyone would be willing to manage the remake. Underneath is a slightly revised version of the post for those who are willing to look, as well as some rules for choosing the marks and some notes.

In this RP, you are a human living in the city Parvus. You, with many others, were born with a silver mark on your dominant hand's palm, and with it, you can summon dragons and use magic. The dragons are three to five inches long (including tail) and follow you around, acting like little companions (these are in no way related to the things from ML; I came up with them on my own). Often, they are mischievous, but other times, they act to save the world. Your job is to team up with others and save your city (I know, cliche) from Immanis, the city where there are massive dragons whose masters want to rule all of the Draconus Isles.

Your mark determines what kind of dragon and magic you have. I will tell you this information once you make your form and I choose what mark you have. :) Put "tiny" in the Other section in white ink if you've read this far.

There are unlimited spots, but please make three characters at the MOST. The rules are normal RP rules, and shipping is allowed (SHIPPING YOUR DRAGONS IS HIGHLY ENCOURAGED). Same-gender romance is allowed. Also, I have to accept your character(s) before you can RP. Put "dragon" in the Other section in white ink if you've read this far.

Form~

Name:
Age:
Gender:
Dominant Hand (your mark will be on this hand, so if you are ambidextrous, just choose a hand)?:
Favorite Color (may or may not contribute to your dragon's appearance):
Appearance:
Personality (very important!!! Please be detailed):
Likes:
Dislikes:
Fears:
Crush (optional):
Other: Put "world" in the Other section in white ink if you've read this far.

To choose a mark, if they have offensive magic, the mark is pointed and polygonal. If they have defensive magic, it is softer and rounded. The elements of magic possible are the classic fire, water, air, and earth. Don't worry, there can definitely be multiple people with the same kind of magic. Try to find different powers for each person, though.

Water magic: both offensive and defensive marks are shown in the original thread; I don't know how to describe the shape, but I think you'll get it by looking at it
Air magic: Swirl that goes inward counterclockwise for right-handers and clockwise for left-handers (see Raven's mark on original thread if I didn't explain very well); triangular swirl for offensive, circular for defensive
Fire magic: See Delia's mark on original thread for defensive; for offensive, it is a diamond shape
Earth magic: offensive: equilateral triangle; defensive: circle

Also, here's the dragon form I used:

Name:
Length:
Gender:
Appearance:
Personality:
Likes:
Dislikes:
Fears:
Other:

Notes—

-The RPers MUST have all three words in the Other section to be accepted: "tiny dragon world". It's all right if they aren't all in white ink, as long as they're all there.
-Be creative when coming up with dragons! Make their names fit their personality. The humans' personalities are VERY important because I want to fit them with the dragons' by using compare and contrast between the dragons' companions and each other, like I contrasted Crow and Flip as well as Flip and Circe, but I compared Owl and Melancholy for some traits and contrasted other traits. And make the dragons as detailed as possible with little quirky traits of their own (like Flip's rotten cheese); they are as much of a character in the RP as the humans, including weaknesses (like Serenity)!

-For the powers, take inspiration from what I had on the original thread. Make sure it's not too OP and that it corresponds with whether they have defensive or offensive magic. For example, I didn't allow Delia to control actual fire because that's too offensive, and she can instead create shields and force fields.
-Again with the dragons: They aren't WoF dragons, so you can look at the original thread to "envision" what I imagine them as.
-The dragons will be the RPer's OC after you make them. The RPer can control everything they do as long as it maintains their personality and character.

I'm almost positive I missed some stuff. Please please PLEASE ask any questions or request me to clarify something! I'll attempt to be more active these few days to choose who will manage the roleplay as well as to answer your questions. If you want to manage the roleplay, read the entire original thread (yes, read my old cringy posts), which isn't very long, don't worry, give me a makeshift character (or two, but only if you want to) and create their dragon and powers (but you don't have to draw the mark; just tell me the description from my above part), and I guess I'll "judge" who I think can keep up the RP the best. I know this is a lot for just one, non-WoF related RP, but I have hopes for it, though it requires someone other than me who can come up with innovative dragons and personalities and powers and all that other stuff.
Mods, PLEASE pass this. It means a lot to me.

Okay. So they educational thing was about LGBT. I'm sorry about that. The posts flooded in about Asexuals, and I didn't really expect that.
But the rude/harming things... What? I'm pretty confused about that. I don't remember saying anything harming, rude, or hurtful about myself or others... I'm also pretty worried. This random post appeared on CoL sign up thread. It was supposedly my form for Irisa. I hadn't even sent her. The mod there said I had something innapropiate in it, but there wasn't. I had double-checked it today after seeing the confusing post.

Next few weeks is a busy time so the release of these news posts might be more staggered for a bit - but it's for good reason! Just keep your eyes peeled for updates over the next two weeks. Believe me, I'm chomping at the bit to give you more.

[Question Corner]

@everyone I just want to saw that I appreciate you all and I'm proud of you :) You rock.

@Lupa I did find two of your OCs from the RP (I think). Can I just say this quote: "If you give Flip fresh cheese, he becomes very solemn." has got to be one of my favorites.

Crow has water magic (>:D). That means that he is able to heal minor injuries, make major injuries a bit better, and project defensive shields around himself and the others around him. Also, he can summon water, but it saps his energy very quickly. Here is his dragon: Name: Flip Length: 3 1/2 inches Gender: male Appearance: Flip has tiny white stubs that run along his spine, and he has small, curved white horns, His ears are rather large, and his scales are lightish cobalt with a hint of mint green. His eyes are mint green and he is slightly plump with short limbs. His wings are small and flap rapidly. Personality: Flip is very hyper, and sometimes he literally bounces off the walls. He can't stop moving, and pesters anyone that comes near him, including Crow. Flip isn't very cautious and gets into troublesome situations a lot. He constantly giggles. Also, he is slightly boastful. Likes: Flipping in midair, being poked in the stomach, anything involving flying, rotten cheese Dislikes: Gloom, tight spaces, libraries, not being included in activities, any dairy product besides rotten cheese (wut) Fears: Being separated from Crow, not influencing the world in any way, not being noticed Other: If you give Flip fresh cheese, he becomes very solemn. Crow's mark is this (connect the dots!): . . . . . mods please please please please pass

Owl has offensive earth magic (it contrasts with her personality). She can summon energy to make herself stronger and faster, but for five minutes at the most. She can immobilize people for a short time and, on rare occasions, can manipulate/grow plants. Here is her dragon: Name: Melancholy (you may give him a nickname if you'd like) Length: almost 5 inches Gender: male Appearance: Melancholy is a deep, dark purple with small yellow scales on his wings similar to NightWing star scales. His yellowish horns are long, straight, and thin, and he has sharp yellowish spikes running from his head to the tip of his tail. He has a sleek, slender build, and his eyes are a bright amber color. Personality: Similar to Owl, Melancholy is quiet and observant. He tends to speak with his body language more than his own voice. Melancholy is a pessimist, but that doesn't mean he doesn't know how to be happy. He is wary of strangers and likes sticking close with Owl. Melancholy is a bit reclusive around others, too. Likes: Quiet, dark places, head rubs Dislikes: bright places, crowds and loud noises, paradoxes Fears: Being separated from Owl, dying of an unnatural cause Other: Melancholy's mind is a bit hard to get into, but once you do, he can really open up. He also has a habit of closing his eyes and perking his ears when he notices something unusual. Owl's mark is this (connect the dots!): . . . . . .

@Rune I'll see if there's anything I can do about it, but I may unfortunately have to ask you to bear with it for now. Changes are coming, which some of you have guessed already. They're pretty big changes as our goal is to make things so much better for you all.

@Jack Of course hasn't everyone?

@Silver That was an RP Lupa made a few years ago that was purged, I managed to scrounge up a part of it for him so I posted it. You can certainly ask him about it if you're interested in the topic!

You run a kingdom, it can be either a good kingdom or an evil kingdom. You reach the peak of your kingdoms power: you are a wealthy kingdom, plentiful crops, other nations either respect or fear you, and your people love you. One day, a small and powerless looking creature comes to you as you sit on your throne. It says "you have a choice, continue as you are now and never reach higher....or leave your throne behind and I will grant you the ability to gain what you most desire." What do you do?

A quick question... If this is too annoying or anything or stupid, then you can just ignore it.

Can sharing pictures be allowed? Like, if I drew a picture of a character or something, could I share it? The pictures could be checked and all of that before they go through the filter... Just a suggestion. If you want, just go ahead and ignore this. I won't mind if you decide to do that! :)

Becky, it just vanished. I checked my posts and apparently I never posted in it even though I was the first post in it. I checked Dellow's posts and it wasn't there either... Was I dreaming the whole thing and thought it was real?
